Alex – Jason stopped by earlier and is OK with paying for the 3 containers on the water and the 14 containers that we believe may still be at their respective ports.

I think it is best for @Fred Poggemeyer and I to be able to offer payment in process on the three containers and instruct HY to release the Parts orders as a result. If that is done, then we should proceed with payment of the cans currently in Singapore.

Do you approve of releasing the three containers for payment today?

Confirming my recommendation is to proceed with payment of the following. Has this been completed? Please confirm HY can expect payment for these three on Thursday.

Purchase Orders “on the water” and which have not been released to CTG

Pay for these three containers ($155k)

75010 – Spring Hill Hickory

66004 – Annapolis Blue

73803 – Worthington Grey

Kim- What is your estimate for what Haiyan is paying for storage daily for the 12 containers in PSA and 2 in Penang?

Thanks,

Hi -

Expeditors origin did not confirm the exact location of the containers but did confirm that the shipments are on hold. Based on Shannon's query with the vessel line (ONE), the bookings that moved to Singapore show still in the port - :

Avi- Kim has expeditors confirming the following overnight:

- 12 containers are still in the Port of Singapore and the 2 others are in the Penang yard - status is rolling until notified - right now it shows vessel 9/25 ETD
- ETD is for 2 containers - the others in Singapore are waiting for direction right now.

If this direction is confirmed in the morning, I propose the following payment strategy.
